We have 523 self certifications returned and approximately 100 outstanding (we expect more returned around tax time). We have received $775.00 in late filing fees as of February 7, 2013. We need a policy on how to handle people who claim they did not receive a self certification form by mail. Do we charge these people?

We have an order that our Land and Water Resource Management (LWRM) plan extension was approved; however, a more detailed matrix/plan will be submitted to DATCP by April 1, 2013.
