Regional Planning Commission to Meet

PLATTEVILLE October 18 2013 - - The Southwestern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission (SWWRPC) will meet at 9:30 a.m., on Tuesday, December 10, 2013, in Dodgeville in Conference Room 1001 at the Iowa County Health and Human Services Building for their regularly scheduled meeting.

Agenda items will include updates on grants and projects and staff activities. There will be a financial update and signing of some on-going staffing agreements and other project contracts. The Commissioners will be briefed on the Economic Development, Community Planning and Transportation programs. In addition the Commissioners will review bills and vouchers and receive an update on other Commission activities from the Executive Director, including a briefing on possible future staffing strategies and economization initiatives with the Southwestern Wisconsin Workforce Development Board.

The public is invited to attend.

SWWRPC provides intergovernmental planning and coordination of community development planning, economic development, and transportation. In response to local and regional goals, the Commission and its Staff work to enhance fiscal and physical resources and to balance local and regional development, preservation, conservation, and social priorities.

SWWRPC's member counties are Grant, Green, Iowa, Lafayette, and Richland.
