Regional Planning Commission to Meet

PLATTEVILLE August 11, 2014 - - The Southwestern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission (SWWRPC) will meet at 9:30 a.m., on Tuesday, August 26, 2014, in Dodgeville, in the upstairs conference room at the Iowa County Courthouse for the regularly scheduled meeting.

Agenda items will include updates on grants and projects and staff activities. There will be a financial update and a review of the upcoming year's meetings and events. The Commissioners will be briefed on the Economic Development, Community Planning and Transportation programs. In addition the Commissioners will review bills and vouchers and receive an update on other Commission activities from the Executive Director. The Commission will also review and consider amendments to the Personnel Policy Manual for grant management and referral of personnel complaints. There will also be an update on the Annual Meeting of the Association of Wisconsin Regional Planning Commissions.

The public is invited to attend.

SWWRPC provides intergovernmental planning and coordination of community development planning, economic development, and transportation. In response to local and regional goals, the Commission and its Staff work to enhance fiscal and physical resources and to balance local and regional development, preservation, conservation, and social priorities.

SWWRPC's member counties are Grant, Green, Iowa, Lafayette, and Richland.
