Regional Planning Commission to Meet

PLATTEVILLE October 15, 2015 - - The Southwestern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission (SWWRPC) will meet at 9:30 a.m., on Tuesday, October 27, for their regularly scheduled meeting in the upstairs conference room at the Iowa County Courthouse. A financial update and FY2014 Audit briefing is expected to be given. The Commission will also consider adoption of a Policy regulating the Commission's Reserve Fund. In addition, updates on current contracts and upcoming meetings will take place.

All meetings of the Commission are open to the public.

SWWRPC provides intergovernmental planning and coordination of community development planning, economic development, and transportation. In response to local and regional goals, the Commission and its Staff work to enhance fiscal and physical resources and to balance local and regional development, preservation, conservation, and social priorities.

SWWRPC's member counties are Grant, Green, Iowa, Lafayette, and Richland.
