Southwestern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission to Meet

PLATTEVILLE November 18, 2016 - - The Southwestern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission (SWWRPC) will meet at 9:30 a.m., on Tuesday, November 29, for their regularly scheduled meeting. The meeting will be held in the Community Room at the Iowa County Health and Human Services Building, located at 303 W. Chapel Street in Dodgeville, Wisconsin. The Commission will review and discuss its current financial position, confirm a timeline for its future strategic planning efforts, finalize its 2017 meeting dates, approve the 2017 Rural Transportation Planning Work Program, and also hear program reports.

All meetings of the Commission are open to the public.

SWWRPC provides intergovernmental planning and coordination of community development planning, economic development, and transportation. In response to local and regional goals, the Commission and its Staff work to enhance fiscal and physical resources and to balance local and regional development, preservation, conservation, and social priorities.

SWWRPC's member counties are Grant, Green, Iowa, Lafayette, and Richland.
