1. What is difference between a “certified” and an “uncertified” copy of a declaration of domestic partnership?

A certified copy of a declaration of domestic partnership issued by the Register of Deeds will have a raised seal, will show the signature of the Register of Deeds, and will be printed on security paper. A certified copy may be required to assert legal rights that apply to domestic partners.

State law restricts who may obtain a certified copy of a declaration of domestic partnership. A certified copy can only be issued to those people with a “direct and tangible interest” (section II, categories A – E) which means the following people:

- One of the partners named on the declaration of domestic partnership (section II, category A).
- An immediate family member defined as a parent (whose name is on one of the partner’s birth certificate and whose parental rights have not been terminated), brother, sister, grandparent, or child of the subject of the record (section II, category B).
- NOTE: Grandchildren, step-parents, step-children, step-brothers and step-sisters can only obtain certified copies as section II, categories C – E.
- The legal guardian of a partner named on the declaration of domestic partnership. Legal proof, e.g., a court order of guardianship, is required (section II, category C).
- A person authorized in writing by one of the above. A written and notarized authorization must be attached to this application and the authorization must clearly state the relationship of the authorizing party to the subject of the record (section II, category D).
- A person who can demonstrate that the declaration of domestic partnership is required to determine or to protect a personal or property right (section II, category E). Proof is required.

If you do not meet one of the above criteria, you cannot receive a certified copy of a declaration of domestic partnership.

An uncertified copy will contain the same information as a certified copy but it is not acceptable for legal purposes. (section II, category F)

2. How long will it take to process my request?

Copies of declarations of domestic partnerships are available from the Register of Deeds no less than 3 weeks from the date of the event.

- Applying in Person
 - Requests for certified copies of declaration of domestic partnerships are usually completed within 2 business hours of application, if the declaration of domestic partnership is on file.
 - Requests for uncertified copies of declaration of domestic partnerships are not completed on the same schedule as requests for certified copies. In-person requests for uncertified copies may take up to 1 month to complete.
- Applying by Mail
 - Requests for certified copies of declarations of domestic partnerships may take up to 2 weeks plus mail time to complete.
 - Requests for uncertified copies of declarations of domestic partnerships are not completed on the same schedule as certified copies. Mail requests for uncertified copies may take up to 1 month plus mail time.

3. What identification is required when applying for a certified or uncertified copy of a declaration of domestic partnership?

A photocopy of the applicant’s ID as listed below must be submitted with all mail applications. ID as listed below is required when applying in-person.

At least one form of ID must show your name and address. Expired cards or documents will not be accepted.
